

Andrew Jackson Colwell, Jr.
Carrollton & Farmers Branch
TXGenWeb

Home > People > C > Andrew Jackson Colwell, Jr.

Coppell Man Dies Recently at Home

Andrew Jackson Colwell, 71, passed away Sunday, June 14, at his home near Coppell. Funeral services were held from the Baptist church there with interment at the Farmers Branch cemetery Monday following his death.

He was born on a farm six miles west of Grapevine April 9, 1871. He moved to Dallas County 63 years ago and had lived on the same farm 52 years. He was married in Feb., 1888 to Miss Katherine Dick.

Survivors include the wife; two children, Charlie Colwell of Coppell and a daughter, Mrs. W. R. Carothers of Dallas, Rt. 4; two sisters, Mrs. Joan Cracker of Ft. Worth and Mrs. Belle Ferguson of California; one brother, Wiley Colwell also of California; 12 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

He was the grandfather of Charl Colwell of Carrollton.

OBITUARY

Coppell Man Dies Recently at Home

Andrew Jackson Colwell, 71, passed away Sunday, June 14, at his home near Coppell. Funeral services were held from the Baptist church there with interment at the Farmers Branch Cemetery Monday following his death.

He was born on a farmer six miles west of Grapevine, April 9, 1871. he moved to Dallas County 63 years ago and had lived on the same farm 52 years. He was married in Feb., 1888 to Miss Katherine Dick.

Survivors include the wife; two children, Charlie Colwell of Coppell and a daughter, Mrs. W. R. Carothers of Dallas, Rt. 4; two sisters, Mrs. Joan Cracker of Ft. Worth and Mrs. Belle Ferguson of California; one brother, Wiley Colwell and also of California; 12 grandchildren and sex great grand children.

He was the grandfather of Charles Colwell of Carrollton.

The Carrollton Chronicle - Friday, June 26, 1942